FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

HO-HO-KUS VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT TO HOST 2017 FALL OPEN HOUSE ON SUNDAY, OCT. 15

HO-HO-KUS, N.J., Sept. 30, 2017 - Mark your calendar! The Ho-Ho-Kus Volunteer Fire Department and Ladies Auxiliary will host its annual Open House on Sunday, October 15, from 1:30-4PM, in participation of National Fire Prevention Week.

The event, to be held at the firehouse, will provide hands-on activities for children and adults including live fire-house target practice. Firefighters will show advanced firefighting and life-saving techniques through a series of instructive demonstrations.

“Sparky,” the Ho-Ho-Kus Fire Department mascot, will be there for autographs and photos. Coloring books and toy fire helmets will be distributed to children. Cider, donuts, popcorn, balloons, and rub-on tattoos will be part of the fun. A fundraiser raffle for an ATV will conclude the day.

Please join us! Since 1911, the Ho-Ho-Kus Volunteer Fire Department has been protecting lives and property, “Neighbors helping Neighbors”.
